

Teaching Gets Most of Village School Dollar

By AL LE ANCE

If you're paying school taxes here in Palm Springs, don't be too alarmed by the citizens in Sacramento who are currently blistering the senate chambers over reports that "barely half" of California's school funds are spent for actual classroom teaching.

Like the man said, it can't happen here. (Well, it can, but it isn't — and that's the important thing.)

AN "IMPARTIAL" survey today revealed that almost three-fourths of the expenditure for education here today is funneled into Palm Springs classrooms — which is something of a departure from the overall state scene.

This intelligence should be tucked onto a state senate committee report which last week charged that a total of 51.2 per cent — "barely half" — of current expense "goes toward teaching in the classrooms."

THE SENATE Special Committee on Governmental Administration claims that the rest of the state's educational cash pays the tab for activities and school employees outside the classroom.

But that isn't quite the way your tax dollar crumbles in Palm Springs, according to statewide figures and local administrators.

"Our real emphasis is on teachers here," said Schools Supt. Dwight Twist. "Our instructional costs are high, but we have smaller classrooms and more teachers."

WHICH MEANS that Palm Springs has a well-balanced system — the financial scales are weighted in favor of actual classroom instruction, that is.

True, Palm Springs' educational costs are among the highest. The Palm Springs Unified School District ranks sixth among 52 unified districts of 1,000 average daily attendance and more.

It cost $44 to educate each of the 2,593 youngsters marked in "average daily attendance" here last year. The most expensive district was Beverly Hills, with $515. But it's all in how you slice it.

THE SCHOOL district actually spent $305 of its $444 per ADA for instruction — teachers' salaries and related costs (textbooks, etc.). That's just about 68.5 per cent of the total amount.

And, according to the "impartial survey" (conducted by The Desert Sun) that's a bit more than the 51.2 per cent cited as the state average by the senate committee.

The rest of the Palm Springs school dollar — 31.5 per cent of it — pays for administration, operation and maintenance, pupil transportation, auxiliary services and fixed charges.

COMMITTEE MEMBERS also complain that 10 per cent of the school money goes to certificated employees working outside the classroom — superintendents, principals, and the like.

In Palm Springs, the certificated non-teaching share is just about five per cent.

These figures and percentages are based on a report of school district expenditures per pupil compiled by the California Taxpayers' Association.

YOU'LL HAVE to examine local salary schedules, however, to check out Sen. Stanley Arnold's complaint that many California school administrators are paid "exorbitant" salaries while building empires of "plush positions." Arnold, a Susanville Democrat, said that 107 school districts in the state paid their superintendents $15,000 or more.

Palm Springs fits in this bracket — Superintendent Twist earns $17,600 in the current 1956-59 budget — but Arnold's particular objection is aimed at high salaries paid executives by many "impoverished" districts receiving state aid.

The Palm Springs district is not considered one of these impoverished districts.

HE ALSO NOTES that a few executives receive more than $20,000. See SCHOOL, Page 2

Phone Rate Hike Hearing Set in Village

CWTC Seeks Okeh In Plan to Add $1,250,000 Revenue

Hearing on a California Water and Telephone Co. plan to add $1 1/4 million to its annual billings begins at 10 a.m. Oct. 8, in the City Council chambers at city hall.

The California Public Utilities Commission today set Oct. 8 as the date for public hearing on proposed telephone rate increases for the Palm Springs area.

THE HEARING involves the second rate-hike request filed in the past seven months by the company, which serves Palm Springs, Cathedral City, Rancho Mirage and Desert Hot Springs.

Company officials claim that the new increase is necessary because rates established by the commission earlier this year will fail to yield returns commensurate with commission estimates of "reasonable" revenues.

PETER A. NENZEL, company general manager, said the telephone company expects to serve 11,000 new subscribers this year. He also cited a $40 million expansion program conducted over the past five years.

Because of continuing demands for additional service, Nenzel said the company expects to spend another $10 million for additional plant facilities in resort service areas this year.

INCREASES PROPOSED by the company range from $1.05 for four-party residential service to $5.60 for PBX trunk lines.

Among services marked for monthly rate increases are:

—Four-party residential service, from $3.40 to $4.45.

—One-party business, from $10.65 to $14.25.

—One-party residential, from $5.00 to $6.90.

—PBX trunk lines, from $15.75 to $21.35.

Oklahoma Takes Liquor in Stride

OKLAHOMA CITY — (UPI) — Oklahoma's liquor cabinets gleamed today with the first legal liquor since statehood in 1907 but early sales were surprisingly slow.

If Oklahomans were partaking with increased gusto in the liquor which became legal to sell only Tuesday, they did not show it. Police in the state's two largest cities, Oklahoma City and Tulsa, remarked that the day was "just as usual, no different." They reported no more than the usual number of drunks.

Ike Wins Veto Battle in House

WASHINGTON — (UPI) — The House refused by one vote today to override President Eisenhower's veto of the $1,206,748,549 public works bill to give him a stunning legislative victory.

The vote upset all advance predictions and kept intact Eisenhower's record of never having lost a veto showdown with Congress.

The Monday closing requires the establishment of new deadlines for the Tuesday paper, as follows: Display advertising, 5 p. m., Friday; Classified advertising, 10 a. m., Saturday.

READYING POLICE FOR the safety of school children at bus stops during the coming school year, George Bond, director of school transportation, shows Chief of Police August G. Kettmann and Traffic Sgt. Robert Young the vital corners at which many children will wait for buses to pick them up. The school system will have some 17 buses in operation daily with each making a total of more than 75 stops. Chief Kettmann plans to give the school district "every possible protection" in the handling of students by putting both cars and motorcycles in action in important areas. (Desert Sun Photo).

OFFICER SLASHED BY SAFETY RAZOR

An off-duty Palm Springs policeman was slashed by a safety razor and an irate husband went to jail after a quiet house party erupted into a wild family donnybrook here early this morning.

Police said that Patrolman Jack Kelly, 32, was slashed on the hand when he tried to grab a safety razor from the hot-tempered husband, 23-year-old Donald Harrington, of Inglewood.

HARRINGTON WENT to jail on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon and Kelly was treated for minor cuts on his hand.

Kelly reported that he and another off-duty officer, Paul Smith, were attending a quiet party at the home of Jacqueline Warner, 2222 Acacia Road.

H. said the party erupted when a fight developed between Harrington and his wife, Evelyn, 27, who were houseguests of Mrs. Warner, after the husband accused his wife of dancing with another man.

HARRINGTON ALLEGEDLY picked up a safety razor when Kelly and Smith tried to break up the battle. He dropped the razor after wrestling with Kelly, grabbed a paring knife from the kitchen and ran to the front porch, Kelly said. But Harrington dropped the knife and surrendered quietly when Patrolman Robert Johnson, attracted to the scene by the noise of the melee, confronted the disgruntled husband in the Warner front yard, police reported.

Winter Party Weathered In

CHRISTCHURCH, New Zealand (UPI) — The United States winter party at McMurdo Sound, Antarctica, radioed today that it had been weathered in by a four-day blizzard which ended today.

They reported the temperature dropped to 74 degrees below zero one day last month making it the coldest day of the winter.

Segregation Ends In Durham, N.C.

United Press International Eight Negroes attend white public schools in Durham, N.C., today for the first time.

In other school integration developments, limited integration in Winston-Salem, N.C., was scheduled to begin today for the third consecutive year.

As in the case of Tuesday's school openings at Arlington, Va., and High Point, N.C., where Negroes attended previously all-white and predominantly white schools for the first time, no incidents were anticipated.

Kettmann Tells New Resignation

The decreasing roster of police officers in Palm Springs dropped one more man this week and Chief of Police August G. Kettmann indicated that it would not be the last.

A. O. Wahlberg, Jr., who has been with the local force for two years, handed his resignation to Chief Kettmann stating that he finds that he is "unable to adequately provide for my family on the salary paid by the department without holding a second job."

CHIEF KETTMANN also reported that other officers on the department have also indicated that they may be leaving, with some awaiting the outcome of examinations they have taken for other police forces.

Wahlberg has dated his resignation effective Sept. 30, and is presently running his own business, Crown Pool Service.

DURING THE PAST 12 months nearly a score of officers and police clerks have left the department, and the greater number of these have indicated that the salary scale was their chief reason for resignation.

City Manager Dan Wagner said that a complete survey of city salaries will be made by the State Personnel Board later this month and will make reports on its findings to the City Council.

Two Strikes End, But New Ones Expected

United Press International Labor peace returned to the airlines and rubber industries today, but strikes or the threat of strikes continued to rock the business boat in rocketry, railroads, insurance and steel.

A threatened flight engineers' strike against Pan American World Airways was postponed indefinitely Tuesday night when flight engineers refused to teach classes training "third pilots" in the cockpits.

A SECOND MAJOR strike in the rubber industry was averted Tuesday night when the United Rubber Workers Union and Firestone Tire and Rubber Co. signed a contract calling for 10-cent hourly wage increases for 18,000 workers.

But little progress was reported in other labor disputes around the nation.

—Negotiations were to resume today in New York in the nationwide steel strike after a five-day breathing spell. No progress was evident.

—A STRIKE BY equipment operators at Cape Canaveral, Fla., idled 800 construction workers engaged in building missile facilities at the major rocket testing site.

The Air Force said the strike, now in its third day, had affected "work on all construction projects at Cape Canaveral," but added that the walkout had not delayed missile launching schedules.

—The chairman of the Western Carriers Conference Committee, a railroad management group, criticized labor leader George E. Leighty for threatening a strike by 850,000 non-operating rail workers.

HOUSE-SENATE NOW IN AGREEMENT ON LABOR REFORM BILL

WASHINGTON (UPI) — House-Senate conferees reported today they have informally agreed on all but one point in the labor reform bill and may put off action on this disputed provision until next year.

Such a course would pave the way for the joint conference committee to stamp approval on a compromise measure later today.

Ike, DeGaulle Pleased With First Parley

President Accorded Triumphant Greeting By French People

PARIS — (UPI) — President Eisenhower arrived in gaily decorated Paris today and received a new triumphal welcome. He promptly plunged into cold war talks with President Charles de Gaulle. Their first session was described as "good and encouraging."

Presidential Press Secretary James C. Hagerty said the two leaders were so pleased with their initial meeting that they decided to extend their talks by at least one hour Thursday.

HAGERTY ANNOUNCED that Eisenhower and De Gaulle will leave an hour earlier than planned for Rambouillet, the French President's official country residence, where they will spend Thursday night. They may drive in the same car to Rambouillet — presumably to give them further time to talk.

Russian Police Head Visits U.S.

WASHINGTON — (UPI) — The head of Russia's secret police, Maj. Gen. Nikolai S. Zacharov, is now in the United States checking security arrangements for the visit of Premier Nikita Khrushchev.

Official sources said today that Zacharov and a top aide are visiting the various cities where Khrushchev will stop and checking the routes along which he will travel during his 12-day tour beginning Sept. 15.

Zacharov is head of Russia's KGB, the super-secret police organization charged with internal security in the Soviet Union and protection of top Russian officials.

Support Rallies

Beatnik Art Nixed For 'Testimony'

LOS ANGELES — (UPI) — Those poems, paintings and songs especially created by beatniks in support of their Venice hangout aren't going to be admitted as "testimony" by the Police Commission's Entertainment Licensing Board.

"This purpose of this hearing is to find out whether the proprietors and patrons of the Gas House (the beatnik center) are creating a disturbance to other Venice residents sufficient to deny the license," said hearing officer Thomas Mulherin.

THE BEATNIKS were lined up Tuesday outside the hearing room with their "works of art," but Mulherin commented: "I'm not a bit concerned if the art is good or bad, only whether the license should be granted."

"YOU'RE JUST BITTER," says former Cabazon Police Chief Robert Morton in a verbal attack on Mayor Joseph J. Belsito. Morton last night charged that Belsito's "bitter feelings" over the former chief's application for a business license earlier this week caused the resignation of newly appointed City Councilman Jack Lee. Belsito denied Morton's charge that "you told me I wouldn't get a license and the council would stop me (from opening a service station)." (Desert Sun Photo).

CABAZON COUNCIL REORGANIZES CITY

CABAZON — Making like a new broom pushing for a clean sweep on its first trial run, Mayor Joseph J. Belsito whisked through the dusty corners of city government last night to reshape most of Cabazon's civic structure.

In a rapid-fire action punctuated by sharp encounters with former Police Chief Robert Morton, Belsito successfully sponsored motions to hand three major city agencies over to the county government.

HE ALSO PICKED up three new titles along the way — those of fire commissioner, Civil Defense chief and member of a brand new city planning commission.

Supported by unanimous approval of a four-man city council — reduced from five by the resignation of newcomer Jack Lee — Belsito prepared to secure contracts that would turn the city's sanitation, building and fire departments over to the county control.

"WE'VE GOT to do it for self-preservation," Belsito declared, explaining that the city lacks the administrative strength to enforce building and sanitation codes which, he claims, are ignored by some area builders.

"We've got to clean up our back yards or we can't get industry here," he added, pointing out that "we'll be just like (India's) shack-infested) Cabazon. Indian Reservation if we don't."

BELSITO THEN turned to city planning. He authored another successful motion to dissolve the old planning commission and immediately appointed — with council endorsement — four commissioners.

New city planners are John B. Christensen, Lloyd Williamson, James Whigham and former councilman Clayton White. Belsito is the fifth commissioner.

Belsito, exercising his new mayoral authority for the first time since election, also decided that "it's time to organize the city's bookkeeping."

He secured council permission to hire a Banning accountant to clean up the city's three-year-old records and set up a new bookkeeping system.

Dalai Lama, India Leader Confer Today

Tibetan God-King Receives Ovation From Indian Crowds

United Press International A report that Tibet's ousted Dalai Lama and India Premier Nehru will ask United Nations police action against Red China was rumored in India today as a new Communist invasion — in tiny Laos — threatened to break into a civil war.

At Vientiane, Laos, Gen. Ouane Rathikone, commander of the Lavan armed forces, said that "a strong force" of Communist North Vietnamese troops struck across the border and are now "menacing" the city of Samneua.

IN NEW DELHI, Nehru was expected to tell later today his reaction to the plea of the ousted Dalai Lama for support in a plea to the UN over the Red Chinese aggression in Tibet.

The Tibetan god-king received ovation after ovation en route to the meeting with Nehru. Police had to form a flying wedge to force a way through the crowd for the Dalai's automobile.

THE LAOTIAN situation, which has worsened steadily in recent weeks, was described as "acute" by Gen. Rathikone.

He said the Communist forces captured or occupied about 30 villages along the Namwa River across a 35-mile front. He said the attacking forces was 13 miles from Samneua late Tuesday. Reports received Tuesday night said the 3,500-strong Red force was still advancing.

"They are not Pathet Lao rebels, they are Viet Minh and some black Thai (tribesmen)," Rathikone said.

THE GENERAL said the attack — second launched from Communist Viet Nam in the past two months — was kicked off last Sunday at dawn in coordinated attacks on six villages.

Asked if the government intended to keep pulling back its troops, the general replied with an emphatic: "No, we stop now."

NEHRU ALSO TOLD a tense capacity crowd in Parliament today that India's defense crisis had been eased by the withdrawal of Lt. Gen. K.S. Thimayya's resignation as army chief of staff.

Nehru heaped praise on Defense Minister V. K. Krishna Menon, making no mention of the fact that he too had offered to resign in the crisis touched off by his alleged playing politics with the armed forces.

Youth Gang Leaders Held In New York

Arrests Follow Urgent Calls For Conferences

NEW YORK — (UP) — Police today captured the alleged leaders of the Hell's Kitchen playground attack early Sunday that left two teen-agers dead and prompted state and city officials to call a series of top-level meetings on this city's rising youth violence.

Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller asked FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover to enter the battle by attending an emergency meeting next week. State and city leaders were preparing for other conferences scheduled Thursday.

THE CAPE - CLAD "Dracula" and "The Umbrella Man" were arrested early today after fleeing from a police radio car in the East Bronx. With them was a third youth who was not identified.

Police said Sal Agnon readily admitted: "I'm Dracula, the guy you are looking for."

But the slender youth who in the attack wore a blue cape with red lining and silver buckles on his shoes denied killing either of the victims.

"I CUT SOMEBODY early Sunday but I didn't kill anybody," police quoted him as saying.

However, a witness was reported to have said "Dracula" boasted he had done the stabbing after the attack in a darkened playground.

Agnon said Tony Hernandez, arrested with him, was "The Umbrella Man," also wanted in connection with the murders. Four other youths already have been charged with murder.

Mother Held For Son's Theft

SAN DIEGO (UP) — A mother who said she and her husband thought they might as well take advantage of thefts by one of their seven children faces preliminary hearing Sept. 26 on burglary and contributing to the delinquency of a minor charges.

Mrs. Dolores Myers, 36, denied, however, reports she and her husband conducted a "crime school" for their children.

IT'S NOW SERGEANT Robert Flavin, Chief of Police August G. Kettmann hands Flavin his new badge following the approval of his promotion by City Manager Dan Wagner. Flavin has been on the force since July, 1953 and had reached top pay of $480 in the patrolman category. Officially taking over his duties as a sergeant Sept. 1, Flavin will now get $506 per month. At present in the detective division, he will be transferred to the traffic division to work with Sgt. Robert Young. With Chief Kettmann and Sgt. Flavin at the presentation was Lt. Dale Thompson, left, director of police training. The new sergeant is married and lives in the California Dream Homes estates. (Desert Sun Photo).

TRAILER PARK SET AT BERMUDA DUNES

Special to The Desert Sun RIVERSIDE — Plans for a Bermuda Dunes trailer park and proposed extension of Date Palm Drive to Highway 99 were approved by the County Board of Supervisors this week.

The board accepted a planning commission recommendation to permit construction of a 20-acre Bermuda Dunes trailer park by Rhem, Inc., of Indio.

SUPERVISORS ALSO ordered the County Road Department to expedite acquisition of rights-of-way for extension of Date Palm Drive from East Ramon Road to Highway 99, north of Palm Springs.

Application for the trailer park permit was submitted by Mary Sheppards, of Indio, president of Rhem, Inc. The park will be located west of Clinton Avenue, southeast of the Coachella Valley floodwater channel and southwest of Highway 99 in the plush Bermuda Dunes area.

A REQUEST FOR acquisition of rights-of-way for the Date Palm extension was submitted to the board by Palm Springs Panorama Development Company.

The board approved the request and county road commissioner A. C. Keith said he has started the machinery to open a new freeway entrance to the "back door" of Palm Springs and the Cathedral City area.

There will be no local funeral services.

LONGTIME VILLAGE RESIDENT DIES AT LAGUNA REST HOME

LAGUNA — Mrs. Annie Plymire, 80, former longtime Palm Springs resident, died at the Laguna Nursing Home Saturday, after a long illness.

A resident of Palm Springs for about 20 years, Mrs. Plymire left the resort 1½ years ago. She had been a resident of the nursing home since then.

Mrs. Plymire leaves four cousins, including George Lawson, of Riverside. Her sister, Jenny Lawson, also a well-known resort resident, died in Palm Springs a year ago.

There will be no local funeral services.

Dear Abby...

...by Abigail VanBuren

DEAR ABBY: After being married for eleven years and bearing five children for my husband, he still says he is "GOING HOME" when he goes to visit his parents.

It is a little town about sixty miles from here and he makes the trip about once a week.

I know it is natural for a man to want to see his parents, but it makes me very angry to hear him say, "I am going HOME."

Don't you think that after eleven years where his wife and children are should be called HOME? This may seem like a small matter to you but it is big to a woman whose husband feels more at home with his mother than with his own wife and children.

SECOND CHOICE DEAR SECOND: Don't jump to any hasty conclusion. "Home" to most people is the town they've grown up in. It's simply habit and doesn't indicate that your husband feels more "at home" with his mother than he does with you. Remove that chip from your shoulder.

In Palm Springs this year, a record budget of $2,378,478 will pay $1,296,749 for teachers' salaries alone. All told, $1,472,794 is earmarked for instruction.

ADMINISTRATORS WILL receive $77,189 in salaries. The rest is tagged for capital outlay — improvements of buildings and grounds — and such items as food services, pupil transportation, operation of the school plant ($188,126 item) and miscellaneous items.

All of which adds up to what local administrators, educators and Board of Education members consider to be a budget trimmed of all of the "educational frills," heavily accentuating the most equitable distilled brand of education permissible at today's prices — and the limitations of the district tax rate.

ris was bathed in warm clear sunshine that brought tens of thousands into the streets to cheer him.

THE WELCOME WAS cordial and friendly, but more restrained than those in Bonn and London where the crowds almost mobbed the President's car in their enthusiasm.

However, the Paris phase of the Eisenhower international peace crusade before his talks with Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev is expected to prove the toughest of any on his tour.

HAGERTY SAID that it was "reasonable to assume" they began preliminary discussions about Algeria and the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, two of the most ticklish subjects facing them.

De Gaulle is trying to win from Eisenhower a pledge of U. S. support for French policy in Algeria before the issue goes before the U. N. General Assembly later this month.

DE GAULLE HIMSELF greeted the President with unusual cordiality on his arrival at Le Bour-get Airport after a 45 minute flight from London.

The President ended his memorable five-day visit in London with a plea that the United States and Britain maintain their close bonds for the sake of world peace.

$492,953 Issued In Area Permits

Sixty-nine building permits, for $492,953 worth of new construction were issued for the unincorporated areas ringing Palm Springs last month.

County Building Director C. C. Bixel said permits for $137,965 were issued for the area north of the city and $334,988 for the area to the south.

A total of 17 new dwellings accounted for $223,446 of the August construction figure, Bixel said.

IT'S BEST-BUY SEASON ON NEW CHEVROLETS RIGHT NOW... AND YOU'LL NEVER DO BETTER BY YOUR DOLLARS Stop by your Chevrolet dealer's and see the season's most wonderful money's worth. Better make it soon!

IF YOU LIKE GETTING YOUR MONEY'S WORTH, YOU'LL LIKE CHEVY'S 7 BIG BESTS!

BEST BRAKES... STOP ON A DIME AND GIVE YOU MORE STOPS PER DOLLAR They're bigger too. With 'em, Chevy out-stopped all competitors in its field in a NASCAR* conducted test of repeated stops from highway speeds.

BEST STYLE... BEAUTY THAT DOESN'T DEMAND A BIG BANK ROLL The experts at POPULAR SCIENCE magazine looked them all over and said that "... in its price class, Chevy establishes a new high in daring styling." Chevy's leadership in sales for '59 says a lot for its looks too!

BEST RIDE... CARRIES YOU AS CAREFULLY AS IT PAMPERS YOUR DOLLARS "The smoothest, most quiet, softest riding car in its price class." That's the way MOTOR TREND magazine describes Chevrolet's cream-smooth ride. It's way more fun to sample than to read about though. Get out in a Chevy and see what Full Coil springs do.

BEST ENGINE... YOU COULD SPEND JARSFUL OF JACK AND NOT GET A V8 LIKE CHEVY'S Talking about our standard as well as Corvette V8's, SPORTS CARS ILLUSTRATED says, "Indeed, this device is surely the most wonderfully responsive engine available today at any price."

BEST ROOM... NO CRAMPED QUARTERS Let's take the official figures filed with the Automobile Manufacturers Association. They show Chevrolet's front seat hip room up to 5.9 inches wider than in comparable cars. Count on real comfort.

BEST TRADE-IN... YOU GET MORE DOLLARS BACK FOR YOUR CHEVY Last year, for example, Chevrolet used car prices averaged up to $128 higher than comparable models of other makes. Just check the NADA* Guide Book.

BEST ECONOMY... SOCK AWAY YOUR CHEVY SAVINGS As sure as two Chevy Sixes won't win your class in this year's Mobilgas Economy Run, getting the best mileage of any full-size car!

Now there's an Impala Sport Sedan... one of Chevy's full series of Impalas for '59

See your local authorized Chevrolet dealer—you might as well get the most!

DESERT SUN'S CLASSIFIED ADS GET 'NEW LOOK' THIS FALL

The Desert Sun's classified ad section, already known as "the marketplace of the desert," may carry a new look this fall.

Wanda Kennedy, director of the Desert Sun's classified department notified the paper today that the 1959 Convention of the Western Classified Advertising Association has produced a "melting pot of ideas" for use in the Desert Sun's No. 1 daily newspaper this fall.

THE DIRECTOR is attending the meeting, at the Empress Hotel in Vancouver, British Columbia. The session is being hosted by the Victoria Daily Times and the Vancouver Daily Colonist.

"Many of the ideas for improving classified advertising in other publications seem to be the type of thing that will bring greater readership in the Desert Sun's classified section," she said.

She added that she intends to incorporate "most of the new ideas" in the Desert Sun this fall.

A VARIETY of top-level classified managers, representing newspapers in eleven western states, look to the rostrum to deliver detailed descriptions of special endeavor in their own departments.

Topics under discussion included "Selling the Staff," "Selling With Better Copy," "Promotion That Sells," "Selling Plus Business," "Under specific categories, the managers discussed "Selling the Family Want Ad," "Selling Used Car Advertising," "Selling the Special Section," "Selling Real Estate Advertising" and, under a special category, "Sales Management and Cost Control."

The managers were hosted at several dinners and luncheons as well as cocktail parties by the two newspapers in the area. The conference is scheduled to end this week with the classified managers heading for their respective papers and implementation of the new ideas.

FEDERAL GAS TAX TAKES PENNY JUMP

WASHINGTON — UP — The House Public Works Committee yesterday approved an immediate one penny hike in the federal gasoline tax to keep the super-highway construction program going.

The vote was 23-6.

CHAIRMAN CHARLES A. Buckley (D-N.Y.) told reporters afterward he would ask the Rules Committee to clear the plan Wednesday so it can go to the House floor Thursday.

Speaker Sam Rayburn told reporters the bill would be called up Thursday if it gets Rules Committee clearance.

THE PROPOSAL, drafted by the tax-writing House Ways and Means Committee, provides for boosting the federal levy on gasoline from three to four cents a gallon for 22 months.

For a three-year period after the higher tax expires, some of the receipts from automotive excise taxes would be shifted from general revenue into the highway trust fund.

PRESIDENT EISENHOWER, who called for a 1½ cent tax hike, has described the penny plan as a step in the right direction.

It was estimated that the tax hike would bring in an extra one billion dollars.

Buckley indicated he did not expect formidable opposition on the floor.

"I WOULD THINK it would run into more trouble in the Senate," he said.

Before approving the plan, the committee adopted an amendment declaring it the "intent and policy" of Congress that the states should be reimbursed for highways, bridges or tunnels they have built as part of the interstate highway system.

Buckley said there now are about four billion dollars worth of such projects for which the states eventually should be repaid.

Rancho Mirage

By JEAN PATANE

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard McCallum are home from their many short trips to the beach, the mountains and the Los Angeles area throughout the summer. Mr. McCallum is making preparations to open his Rancho Mirage Barber Shop on Sept. 8 for the fifth season.

Among the recent guests at the El Rancho Motel were Tony Kay of Miami, Fla., Mr. A. Firestone of Tucson and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Tooke of Scottsdale, Ariz. Here for the weekend were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Scarpella of Downey and Mr. and Mrs. Blaine Bridenball of Garden Grove.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence McQuinn returned last Saturday from a three week vacation stopping at June and Silver Lakes in the Mammoth Lakes region, a week at Lake Tahoe, and across the High Sierras to the Calaveras Big Trees State Park. They spent the last few days of their vacation at Kings Canyon National Park.

Mr. and Mrs. Ludlow Flower, Sr., returned Monday afternoon to their home on the Veldt after a four-week vacation at Balboa, Newport Beach and visiting with their children and families in Bel Air. Mr. and Mrs. Ludlow Flower, Jr., and children, Mila and Amber, who were at their parents home for the weekend, returned to their Bel Air home Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Buccino with daughter Angela and son Mike returned to their Desert Drive home Sunday night from a ten-day vacation trip to Idelwild, Ore. Enroute home, they stopped in Hawthorne, Nev., to visit with Rancho Mirage Postmaster and Mrs. Sidney Greenleaf who are vacationing there. They also spent a few days in Los Angeles at the home of Mrs. Buccino's mother, Mrs. Angela de Biase. Before leaving for Oregon, Mr. and Mrs. Buccino flew Jetliner to Philadelphia for a months visit with relatives. Returning west they stopped to visit friends in Omaha, Neb. They are planning to open Michael Buccino Interiors on Highway 111 in Palm Desert on Tuesday, Sept. 8.

Among weekend guests at the Montezano Apartments were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Richards of Rialto and Mr. and Mrs. George Tamis of Seal Beach with their friends Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Satrass of Long Beach.

Weekend houseguests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Farr—he is vice president of Salton Sea Vista—were her sister and brother-in-law Jack and Lois Webb of North Hollywood and LaVaun and Charles William of Santa Monica. On Saturday night they celebrated the birthdays of Jack Webb, Jack William and the Farris' daughter, Judy, whose natal day is Sept. 4.

Eight year old Robin Lynn Smith, daughter of Capt. and Mrs. Walter T. Smith, Jr., of Riverside is enjoying two weeks at the home of her grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Walter T. Smith, Sr., of Rancho Mirage Realty.

Mrs. Jack Wartes, whose husband Chaplain Wartes of the San Diego Naval Base sailed Tuesday morning for six weeks sea duty in Hawaiian waters, and children Paul and Carol Beth, arrived Tuesday afternoon to spend 10 days at the home of her mother, Mrs. Pearl Miller, well known Rancho Mirage swimming coach. Mrs. Wartes will return to San Diego for the start of school.

What's Your Postal I. Q. ?

HAS A POST OFFICE CLERK GOT THE RIGHT TO ASK YOU THE VALUE OF A LETTER YOU WANT TO SEND REGISTERED MAIL?

☐ YES ☐ NO

DON'T GET NOSEY, BUB!

Yes, You must tell the postal clerk the full value of an article you wish to send as registered mail and pay the fee specified for such value. The clerk is not prying into your personal business when he asks the value; he is only doing his duty and trying to determine the fee to charge you. Any matter which is to be registered must be securely sealed and prepaid at either the airmail or first-class rate of postage, except second and third-class mail of no intrinsic value, which may be in unsealed wrappers, envelopes, or other containers. Second and third-class matter which has intrinsic value must be sealed and prepaid at the first-class rate. The complete name and address of both sender and addressee must be shown on all mail to be registered. Never place mail you want to register in a collection box or letter drop. Take it to the appropriate window of the main post office or one of its classified stations or branches. Indemnity up to a maximum of $10,000, depending on the value of the article, the registry fee paid, and the commercial insurance coverage, will be paid by the postal service for registered items lost or damaged in the mails.

2. How many post offices in the United States and its territories? 36,000—42,000.

There are approximately 36,000 post offices in the United States and its territories. The number of post offices has declined steadily and appreciably in recent years. In the last five years more than 4,300 offices have been closed. When a post office is closed, service from a nearby office is usually provided by extension of rural routes. For answers to other questions about the postal service call FA 4-1605.

Red Barn Hotel Purchased by Max Grone, Wife

Announcement of the sale of the Red Barn Hotel to Mr. and Mrs. Max Grone, was made today by the purchaser.

The sale price was in excess of $175,000.

Grone, who operates the Florstein shoe store in Palm Springs, plans to make major changes in the hotel and will rename the hotel "Catalina Palms."

The hotel, which will be operated by managers, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Chesney, will be tied in with another Grone hotel, the Catalina Hotel in Avalon.

Grone said today that it would be run on a seasonal basis only. "The hotel, formerly owned by Don Castle, contains 15 units and has a home on the same property. The Grones plan to use the home as a private residence."

John Strada, Jr., Ends Boot Camp

John Strada Jr., of Palm Springs, graduated from recruit training at the San Diego Naval Training Center this week, it was reported here today.

Strada, son of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Strada, of 408 North El Segundo, is an apprentice petty officer third class. His rate signifies that he was chosen to assist his company commander because of "individual aptitude and leadership qualities," according to the Navy Department.

SAFETY CRUSADER EYES LABOR DAY

CRYSTAL LAKE, Ill. UP — A man on a disagreeable mission will mingle with holiday-bent motorists over the Labor Day weekend.

James Seymour, 41, an upholsterer by trade but a traffic safety crusader at heart, will go out searching for slaughter on the highways.

IF HE FINDS IT, he will record it on film in the hope that his graphic movies in color will "jolt Americans into waking up". "We've got to teach people what's going on on our highways," Seymour said as he hammered tacks into a chair in his shop.

"WHEN A MAN'S dead, he's dead. But when he or members of his family are crippled for life, there is untold misery, torture and financial hardship. It goes on for months or years and affects all the family."

Seymour's mother-in-law was killed in a traffic accident 19 years ago and he couldn't get it out of his mind, he said.

THE LABOR DAY weekend, for Seymour, will be typical of his holiday weekends for several years.

"I'll start scouting around Friday night and pull in about 4 a. m. Saturday," he said. "I'll be out again all day Sunday, part of Sunday night, again on Monday".

HOW DOES HE FEEL about taking pictures of people who are dead or agonizingly injured?

"I just pray, and concentrate on my footage," he said. "Too many people try to help with well-meaning but poorly placed first aid that should be left to police and ambulance attendants. I go on doing a job — trying to take pictures that will bring home the slaughter on the highways."

Thousand Palms

Misses Carmen Duran and Elizabeth Nelson drove Mrs. Bruder to Long Beach last Saturday. They went from there to Los Angeles—Miss Duran to spend the remainder of the weekend with her family and Miss Nelson to join her mother, Mrs. A. E. Nelson. Mrs. Nelson has spent the past week in the home of Dr. and Mrs. Willis W. Fisher, friends from Miss Nelson's U. S. C. days. (Dr. Fisher is professor of Old Testament and Archaeology at Southern California School of Theology, a graduate school, in Claremont. He was one of Miss Nelson's professors during her graduate work.)

Recent houseguests of Mrs. Frank L. Bruder were her daughter and grandsons, Mrs. John Hansen, Wayne and Johnny Lee, of San Diego. While here they drove Mrs. Bruder for a visit with Mr. Bruder in the Veterans' Hospital.

STEINBERG, BROWN CONFER ON NAMING OF NEW FARM CHIEF

Lionel Steinberg, of Palm Springs, and other members of the State Board of Agriculture conferred with Gov. Edmund G. Brown this week on potential appointees for the post of State Director of Agriculture.

Steinberg, prominent Coachella Valley rancher, is a member of a committee designated by Gov. Brown to find a successor for Director W. C. Jacobs, who is retiring after 40 years' service. The committee met at lunch with Brown, other agriculture board members and delegates from the Democratic Farm Advisory Bureau.

Alabama Cross Burners Sought

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. — UP — Police today were seeking two white men in connection with the burning of crosses on six all-white Birmingham area public school grounds Monday night.

Several crosses were burned last year on school property, but officials at that time dismissed the burnings as student pranks.

Two white men were seen Monday night running to their car from the Jones Valley High School in suburban Powderly where one cross was burned.

In his day, George Washington was perhaps the largest whisky distiller in the American colonies.

Celebrities Jet To Ryan, Holden Club in Africa

Oilman Ray Ryan and Actor William Holden's Mount Kenya Safari Club in Kenya, British East Africa has become a mecca for jet-minded notables.

This applies to the latest charter members enrolled by Ryan and Holden, General Curtis E. LeMay, U. S. Air Force Vice Chief of Staff, Actress Joan Crawford and Bobo Rockefeller.

The new members are intrigued by the jetliner-nearness of Mount Kenya Safari Club, now less than 24 jet hours away from any major U. S. city.

General LeMay and the Misses Crawford and Rockefeller join a distinguished group of charter members privileged to enjoy country club amenities (golf, tennis, poolside sun lazing and dining, dinner dancing and sumptuous accommodations) in the very heart of safari-land and the ancient kingdoms of African animals and birds.

Established early this year, the Mount Kenya Safari Club has already achieved wide fame as a passport to highly concentrated excitement and adventure.

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—Gov. Edmund G. Brown said today he is considering closing 40 million acres of public land to fishermen, hunters and campers because of the extreme fire danger.

Brown told a news conference he met with lumber industry representatives and state and federal officials Monday to discuss the serious fire situation.

He said lumber spokesmen requested the closure of all public lands under state and federal control until the rains come.

"I haven't made up my mind," Brown said.

Freedom of the Press Again Upheld In Saving TV From Forced Publicity

Chalk up another important victory in preserving freedom of the press as guaranteed by the constitution of these United States.

This time it was a "defeat" for those petty politicians and perennial publicity seekers who "run for office" with no expectation of ever actually being elected, but to keep themselves "before the public," much to the annoyance and expense of the taxpayers, the press and often even the voters.

Over the years there have been many attempts and artifices used by this ingenious ilk of publicity seekers to "force" or inveigle their propaganda into the public media.

Newspapers generally have been quite successful in detecting and screening out such attempts while at the same time publishing as much of any material as might be found to be of meritable news interest to readers.

The self-publicity seekers therefor directed their efforts towards invasion of the television field on the presumption that a requirement of the Federal Communication Commission that stations "give equal free time" to candidates provided an open door to all comers.

Because of its extremely limited air time, television faced the dilemma of omitting all news of candidates or of literally having "all" time taken over by so-called "candidates." To clinch things the FCC re-iterated its equal "free" time ruling.

Fortunately for the public and TV Congress was in session, and recognizing the ridiculousness of the bureau ruling and the undesirable effect it would have on programs for the viewing public, quickly passed a law correcting the situation and shutting out the potential horde of petty publicity seekers by the simple requirement that those seeking free television time first submit proof that they were bonafide candidates.

And what could be more reasonable or in the public interest?

The FCC was quick to adopt the amendment and thus the people and television, as a branch of the free press, was protected in preserving and continuing to exercise its own best judgment as to what is newsworthy and of greatest importance in selecting material for its broadcasts.

It is reassuring to everyone in America to know that the broad and underlying principles of freedom of the press are still in force and able to withstand the selfish attempts to breach them in any quarter including the latest and once undreamed of medium of television.

Freedom of the press is the very foundation of liberty in America.

Out of Character

WASHINGTON, D. C. — Few human beings or human institutions are 100 per cent "consistent," which is a quality that belongs only to phony, wooden characters from cheap fiction and to personalities who literally "act" their way through life. Hence, to find vitality in political life '59, these departures from the norm should be noted.

President Eisenhower went completely out of character this spring by ceasing to be a goal-tender President and turning into a vigorous goal-shooter. Nothing that Mr. Truman did, and little that Mr. Roosevelt did, reflected so much leadership as Ike's successful appeal for the Landrum-Griffin Labor bill. Add this bull's-eye score as a political captain to Mr. Eisenhower's session-long harassment of the Spenders and you have an event which just "couldn't happen" — but did.

CONGRESSMAN INOUE (D-Hawaii) hardly unpacked his suitcase as the first representative of the newest State than he unleashed a perfectly incredible wallop at one of the established institutions in America — the Federal City of Washington, Rep. Inouye came right out and said that the District wasn't "ready" for self-government. Mr. Inouye was right. In fact, he was saying what this column said a couple of weeks ago, but it's a lot safer for a columnist to tell the truth than for a Congressman to do so, especially a freshman. Mr. Inouye has caught all kinds of abuse, but his out-of-character remark had one great advantage. Nobody will ever mistake him for a phony or wooden character.

"I've been kicking myself all the way from Salt Lake City," said Senator Wallace Bennett (R-Utah) when asked about a burst of anger which he regarded as quite unlike himself. This is what happened: Earlier in the Senate week, a proposal was made that Senators no longer have the privilege of revising remarks made on the floor for appearance in the Congressional Record. Bennett recently had a pretty unfriendly exchange with a colleague who, when it was over, shook hands and proposed that they strike the unhappy dialogue from the Record.

THIS SEEMED to be a proper use of Senatorial privilege, so Bennett agreed. But shortly afterwards, he found that somebody had deleted several paragraphs (on another subject) which included remarks by himself and five fellow senators. Bennett was furious.

"There has been a great deal of discussion and debate about the rights of a Senator to correct his statements. . . . But it has never been my understanding that a Senator has the right to correct the Record to the point of deleting statements made by his colleagues. . . ."

Leaping to some circumstantial conclusions, Bennett wrongly blamed Senator Joe Clark (D-Penn.), but the culprit turned out to be somebody else. Bennett had publicly accused an innocent man — and how sorry he was! Still, how human also! No wooden character would have done it.

PERHAPS THE THREE most unpredictable events of the session were there: Senator Theodore Green's resignation as chairman of Foreign Relations, Senator Margaret Chase Smith's midnight vote against the confirmation of Lewis Strauss, Senator Bill Proxmire's political assassination attempt upon Majority Leader Lyndon Johnson.

Whoever heard of the beneficiary of the political seniority system declining to benefit? Or of a woman who kept her secret so well that mere men yelled aloud with astonishment at her vote? Or, of a cub biting the hand that feeds him before his teeth are grown? Yet in all three cases, you've got to agree that the departures from the norm made the best possible proof of sincerity.

Out of the Proxmire assassination attempt there grew another unexpected event. Johnson's friends anticipated that his most prompt and most fiery defenders against Proxmire would be conservative colleagues from the South. To the surprise of all, the first and most effective rebuker of Proxmire was a liberal from the Pacific Northwest, Neuberger of Oregon.

NEUBERGER'S rush to Johnson's side (actually before Proxmire had yielded the floor) had a strong and (I think) unreported effect upon the Johnson-for-President strategists. These boys in the back room joyfully discovered and began to proclaim that the Majority Leader's most loyal backers were Westerners, and that the Tall Texan himself was more Western than Southern in his political outlook. It is an unexpected happening which may have national results.

During the hearings on Lewis Strauss, there was a sudden anti-Strauss blast from a man who had no duty whatever to speak out — Congressman Clarence Cannon (D-Mo.). But the outburst had the actual weight of a Senate vote. Up to that time, as it's told to me, Senator Stuart Symington hadn't quite decided whether to vote for or against the confirmation.

Congressman Cannon is not only the senior member of the Missouri delegation, but is chairman of the House Appropriations Committee before whom Cabinet members make their appeals for funds. Cannon's denunciation of Strauss made itself felt in Symington's vote on the other side of the Hill — another of those things that "never happen" — but in reality often do.

Letters to the Editor

Editor Desert Sun
In the absence of Dr. Max Krone, who is completing a year as Music Director for the Armed Forces Schools in Europe, I should like to thank you on behalf of the Idyllwild Arts Foundation for the generous amount of space you have given our activities this season.
This has been our most successful year with nearly 1,000 more students than last year and we know that the excellent coverage of our workshops and special events in the Desert Sun was an important factor in making this possible. We deeply appreciate the fine cooperation we have always received from your staff.

QUOTES

WASHINGTON — Rep. Graham A. Barden (D-N.C.), speaking of efforts by a Senate-House committee to reach a compromise between a tough House labor reform bill and a milder Senate measure:
"We'll get along all right. Conferees always have worked out something."

We have been happy to greet the many people from Palm Springs and the desert area who have enjoyed the facilities of the Foundation and have become lifelong friends of ISOMA-TA.

Thank you again for your splendid cooperation and warm acceptance of all our material.
Sincerely,
Jeanne Merrill,
Vice President

This Side of The Sun By Phat

Should sidewalk strollers
Be exempt?
They, too, at times
Are most unkempt.

I note in The Desert Sun that Chief of Police A. G. Kettmann has declared war on automotive litterbugs.

He has ordered his PD crews to issue citations to those motorists who mess up our streets.

THAT IS GOOD, coming as it does on the eve of the months when we will have thousands of visitors.

But why limit it to motorists? And the streets?

How about pedestrians? And sidewalkers?

Those who toss as they walk make quite a mess, too.

Of course, they rarely throw beer cans on the walks.

But several times I have seen discarded liquor flasks in the open spaces at the base of the palm trees which line the Drive.

I WILL SAY that some of the pedestrians try to be neat. They may not hold their used tissues until they come to a trash receptacle but many of them do attempt to toss it behind a store door or into a crack where it is not easily seen.

Probably that's the home influence — sweeping the stuff under the rug.

THEN THERE ARE the used gum packages, the wrapping from food snacks, the cellophane from candy bars and cigarette packs. (Also the emptied packs themselves.)

Augmented by the people who read letters as they walk.

Through with the letter, they tear it to small bits and let the pieces flutter through their fingers.

I saw one such trail — it must have been a long letter — which extended from Andreas Road to beyond the Bank of America.

MENTIONING the bank reminds me. Some person had apparently just successfully terminated his Timeplan loan.

Instead of depositing the stamped, paid note into a waste basket in the bank, he carefully carried it outside, tore it into little bits and let it drop.

That paper trail extended north almost to the receptacle marked "Help Keep Your City Clean."

ANOTHER FAVORITE target of the breed is that canine drinking fountain in front of Mills. Cleaned out each day it doesn't stay clean long.

Two women were walking up the Drive when one of them spotted it.

"Oh, look, Doggie Bar. Isn't that cute?" said one.

They went to take a look, then walked away silently.

STAN DELAPLANE'S Postcard

This morning we packed up the little Renault in the front and started the engine in the rear. And we drove through the sunny Normandy countryside down to Paris.

Paris is warm and wonderful at this time of the year. We have not attended any of the fashion showings. But have checked out a number of chic chicks on the boulevards:

DRESSES ARE SHORTER — about knee length. Full skirts. Wide belts worn at the natural waistline. The sack is gone, thank goodness. And it is a most attractive costume.

To hold their readers, the Paris papers run a vacation "agony" column.

You pick up (free) on your vacation resort desk a little blue slip. Fill it in with your message and mail it to the paper. They will print it.

"Marie: Arrived safely. T.V. B. (Meaning "tout va bien," or "all goes well"). Desolate without you, Jacques."

A COLUMN OF THIS love-sick desolation makes good reading. If you forgot to turn off the gas, you can print a message to the neighbors, free.

Shirts are up and prices are up to match. The French franc is devalued. But as usual prices rose to meet the new price.

A whopping 24 per cent goes on the hotel bill: 15 per cent for service, 9 per cent for taxes.

NEVERTHELESS, I love Paris — in you name it. The silk breeze rustling through the trees on the shady boulevards. The magnificent sweep of the Champs Elysees to the Arc de Triomphe.

The sidewalk dinners on the Left Bank. The cozy square with the crazy leaning buildings on Montmartre and the gay, narrow streets up the hill.

The blinking lights of taxis rushing through the midnight streets. The rich smell of onion soup gratinee. The chunky Paris police in blue pillbox caps and white gloves.

Music from the open door of a cafe. The pop of champagne corks.

I love Paris. Some town!

EARL WILSON:

Andy Sees End to Sick-nics

NEW YORK — Andy Griffith, the slow-talking, philosopher-like star of "Destry," thinks the public's already sick of sick comedians.

He's been doing a daily five-minute radio monologue on CBS with the Will Rogers approach pointing out for example, that "nowadays schools are different than when you and I went."

"They don't have reading, writing and 'rithmetic nowadays. . . they've got Group Behavior, Receptivity to New Ideas, Aesthetic Perception, Economic Viewpoint and Marital Adjustment," draws Andy.

"Now, mind you, these are for kids 5 years old. Now, supposin' a 5-year-old boy gets marked poor in socio-economic initiative. That's a terrible thing for a 5-year-old boy to have. How do you go about telling a little innocent child he lacks socio-economic initiative?"

"Another thing, everybody's all specialized now, there's no such thing as a handyman anymore."

"These fellows came in to fix my TV set. Had on white uniforms and went after it like it was major surgery. One fellow, he's the helper, or assistant surgeon, he opens up the back, then the specialist puts on his rubber gloves and looks inside and says 'Aha! . . . screwdrivers' . . . and then 'pliers' . . . and then 'soldering iron' . . . and he gets very serious."

"Then I get very serious and I say, 'Hold on there, I don't want to disturb you fellows, but that's the washing machine. I know it's got a round glass thing on the front, but the TV's upstairs.'"

HOT FLASHES: . . . The Merv Griffins (Julanne Wright) are expecting . . . Ethel Merman, back in "Gypsy," got bundles of bouquets, but none reached her dressing room. She's allergic to flowers . . . Marlon Brando's ex-wife, Anna Kashfi, will enter classes at UCLA in the fall . . . Elvis Presley's reportedly set for a ten-day Australian tour in May — at $7,500 a day, plus percentages.

Edye Gorme, who's expecting in January, found while singing at El Rancho Vegas in Las Vegas, that she got violently ill after every show. "I don't understand," she said to her obstetrician, "why after every show I do." The doctor replied: "The baby doesn't dig your act."

Comedian Joe E. Lewis was ordering dinner at the swank new Four Seasons. The captain, proud of the cuisine, said, "To start, how about some nice Scotch salmon?" Replied Joe E.: "Anything Scotch I'll go along with. And how about some Scotch wine?"

Erin O'Brien, who did some kissing scenes with Bob Cummings on TV, tells me Bob chews mints before smooching and "he has the sweetest lips in town."

Peter Lind Hayes and Mary Healy told on their ABC radio show of a famous Hollywood carhop who was discovered while working as a movie star . . . Taffy Tuttle mentioned at the Edison that she's learning how to fly a kite so she can comply with the request of a boy friend.

"An anthropologist says, 100 years from now there'll be no blondes left. I find it hard to leave one now." — Chas. Knouse . . . "Everything passes — including your bridge partner when you get a good hand for once."

—Dublin Opinion . . . "Be sure when you shut your eyes you ain't winking." — Graham, Tex., Scandal Sheet . . . Tony Pettio knows a Broadway woman whom the columnists call the worst old gossip in town. She never has a thing to say about anyone.

TODAY'S BEST LAUGH . . . Sammy Kaye reports from Texas that the local inhabitants have been warned about a flood of phony $10,000 bills.

THE real reason Joshua Logan refused to direct the best-selling "Parrish" at Warner Bros. was his failure to get the stars he wanted: Clark Gable, Vivien Leigh and Robert Montgomery.

That's why he's doing "Tall Story" instead — and this is no Tall Story.

MARIANNE (MISS Illinois) Gaba was signed by a quickie outfit, Rushmore Productions, to play the gorgeous-gal guide of a gang of teenage car-strippers who accidentally kill a policeman. And when I say quickie I mean they've given the picture a shooting schedule of five days!

Talent agent's switchboard girl to one of her boss's actor clients: "He's on the other phone — do you have time to wait?" Actor: "I sure have, honey, and thanks to your boss for making it all possible."

CHANNEL CHATTER — Janet Blair bashfully begged Gen. David Sarnoff, the NBC boss, to excuse her from his party for his son Tom; she wanted to duck in a back room of Sarnoff's home and see a taping of her last Chevy Show of the summer.

"Back room, my eye!" said color-buff Sarnoff, who then bade all 200 guests to join Janet in watching it right there in his living room on his own color set.

BEST PLACE FOR tourists to see the stars these nights is at the Cristiani Bros. Circus here in Los Angeles. It's a real McCoy circus we're having this time: Big Top, all the good old strictly - non - Airwick'd circus smells, and a band that swings away on Sousa without a single microphone. The tent's packed for every performance, too — and even afterward, because that's when Ricky and David Nelson show up to work out on the Cristiani's high wire. They caught the sawdust bag from "The Big Circus."

Jack Benny and Milton Berle will be on hand in Big Town Sept. 26 to help the members of the New York Lambs Club broil the guest of honor at their "Roastmaster Dinner" for Phil Baker.

Fashion Piracy Hazard

By GAY PAULEY
NEW YORK (UP) — French designers go to the police when their styles are stolen. American designers just "grin and bear it."

But on both sides of the Atlantic, fashion piracy takes on all the overtones of a cloak and dagger operation. Designers go to great pains to keep their ideas top secret until the new collections are in production. And the style thieves just as efficiently operate espionage rings specializing in the length of a hemline or the curve of a bosom.

The root of the whole evil is money, for what woman will pay $300 to $500 for a top designer label, when within days or weeks copies as low as $39.95 may be available? The difference will be in quality of fabric and workmanship.

There is a lot of legal copying of Paris styles. Manufacturers or buyers for department stores and specialty shops are permitted to purchase a particular model or models and mass-produce it. But at least the designer got his money's worth.

It's the illegal copying which harasses the style leaders. The French have government protection. This week, the police arrested Mrs. Helene Kastner, 34, a Viennese newspaper woman, and charged her with sketching models from the recent Paris collections and selling them to outlets in New York.

Daniel Gorin of the Paris Fashion Syndicate, a designer group, said the skullduggery had been going on for 12 years. "The latest Paris models were on sale in American stores before they were available to our clients," he complained. American designers can take no legal action, although in recent sessions of Congress bills to permit copyright have been offered. None has passed.

"We have to just grin and bear it," said Norman Norell, veteran designer and winner of just about every fashion award around.

But most American designers have their own methods of preventing thievery, at least until a dress, coat or suit has gotten to the store.

Girth Establishes Worth at Jolly Jaycee Social

For some it was an expensive evening out when Junior Chamber of Commerce members, their wives and friends attended a potluck supper at the Riverside Drive home of Bunny and Dave Fisher, Saturday evening. Guests paid a penny-an-inch admission according to the size of their waists.

Prize for the smallest waistline was the largest lollipop to be found in a candy store and went to Roselee Jackson. Owner of the largest waistline was not disclosed as too many vied for the honor.

The August social was held poolside and, while many swam, others played ping pong, darts, horse shoes or danced on the patio to the hi-fi.

Among those attending were Messrs. and Mmes. Marty Johnson, Herb Esbitt, Joe Garcia, Bob Hillstrand, Bill Bronstein, Hy Ranes, Don Wexler, Ken Jackson, Mike McCarty, Dr. and Mrs. Harvey Cohen.

Also Jim Hollowell, Joe Smith,

Orlando Ferrante and friend. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Phil Abrams (he is the new city engineer) who recently moved here from Los Angeles.

P-TA Officers Aid Registration

Members of Katherine Finch Parent-Teachers Association are assisting this week in registering new students and kindergarten enrollees, serving coffee and donuts to the mothers who accompany the children.

In the absence of the P-TA hospitality chairman, Mrs. James Dupuis, who is on a vacation trip in the east, P-TA president Mrs. Cy Oistad and Mrs. Gerald Fostveldt are in charge of the project, which started Tuesday and continues through Friday.

Many Villagers Vacation on Shores of Tahoe

Palm Springs has been well represented at Lake Tahoe this summer according to word received from Villager Hazel Critchlow, who has been spending the summer there.

Among those still there are Mr. and Mrs. Judd Sessions, who have an interest in Sahara Trailer Park; the Ward Stricklands, who are at El Dorado Camp Ground along with several Palm Springs trailers; Jim Hicks and Mr. and Mrs. Walt Clark, all of Prairie Schooner Trailer Park.

Bernice Richardson, editor of Palm Springs Trailer News, is visiting with Mrs. Critchlow.

Honeymoon Hassle

MONTPELIER, Vt. (UP) — Norman Trombley, 35, was fined $25, given a suspended 90 day jail sentence and placed on probation for hitting his wife and tearing her wedding dress on their honeymoon after a "serious difference of opinion" that got the honeymoon out of hand.

The Desert Sun 9

Around Town

with Hildy Crawford
Phone FA 5-5005

Always in love with Palm Springs... even when the summer sun shines too ardent admiration for the desert... it is good to be back... We who have been sleeping under blankets all summer... in the mountains or at the seashore... now sleep under blankets because of air conditioning... There's lots of activity going on... with the fabulous new Riviera charging along to meet an October deadline... the Desert Spa taking shape... the Village

Pharmacy getting a face lift... The Springs taking on an exciting new look for its new M.F.K. role... and work proceeding on Tahquitz...

There are all kind of changes under way... and it's been a busy summer in the Village... which keeps on growing and improving... There's interesting news all around town... but first let's do some checking on things we've missed...

The lights are on at the Plummer Avenue home of Palm Springs Mayor Frank Bogert and First Lady Janice... who spent a month south of the border...

Mayor Pancho made the news when he was "arrested" in Mexico City... and everyone has been hazarding guesses about the cause... for he is a little too conspicuously big and handsome to be the international spy type... The answer is that one of the 59 license plates on the Bogert car had dropped off... and he became another traffic case... Incidentally... friends who appreciate the Mayor's wit... should know he sent that story in to The Sun himself...

The travelers covered 6000 miles in a month... Motoring down to Vera Cruz... they stopped off at many out-of-the-way places... shopping for curios for their home here...

They were in Oaxaca for five days... and attended a busy market day... In Mazatlan they sunbathed... and did some fishing...

They arrived home in time to see their daughter Denny off to school... Denny... who has been on The Sun switchboard this summer... leaves Friday with Alice Harris... daughter of Phil and Alice... for Tucson... where they will enter the University of Arizona...

Russ Wade dropped into the office... He and Jane are back from Denver where they attended the HillsDilly (he played in the tournament with Earl Cunningham)... Russ said it was a party merry-go-round... with the Buckinghams, Dan Thorntons, Joe Dyers and Bob Six all hosting parties... and that the food was the kind gourmets like to talk about...

They saw the George Barretts there from Chicago... the Mony Moncries, Bill and Dixie Tomberlin... and just about half of Thunderbird who always turn out for this popular tourney... Jane's back at work in her workshop at the entrance to the Desert Inn grounds... where she's turning out zany hats with the Jane Wade touch for some big name clients... Jacque Cole is assisting, I hear...

Zaddie Bunker had this year's birthday (she says she was 29 on the 72nd of August)... and she and her sister Henrietta flew over to the Apple Valley Inn for luncheon...

The date was also the seventh anniversary of her first licensed flight... Henrietta had been her first passenger... and the visit to Apple Valley Inn was a repeat performance...

Lunched at Chi Chi with Jan King who's been in the Village most of the summer... except for a flight to Seattle for the Gold Cup... Vacation ends soon for her, too... as she's due in Hollywood next week when rehearsals start for Bob Hope's October television show... The four Crosby boys... who were so sensational at Las Vegas this summer... are scheduled as guest stars on this show...

Postcards stacked up this summer...

mer... from around the world... Phyllis Flax and daughter, Wendy are in London visiting her family... and for Wendy it means getting acquainted with cousins she has never seen before... They will be back this month to join Dan and Peter who stayed at home...

Fascinating mementoes... including picture folders and even a charming piece of old cranberry glass arrived from Old Starbridge Village in Massachusetts... sent by Ron and Billie Ellis... The Village is a reproduction of an imaginary New England Village of the early days... Built by the late Cheney Wells and his brother it houses their collection of early Americana...

The cranberry actually came from New Hope, Pa., a colorful colonial town on the Delaware River... where they attended a performance at the famous Bucks County Playhouse... and rode on the mule-drawn canal barges...

In the midst of all this old time charm... Ron was bemoaning the fact that only California serves good salads that "excite your palate and taste buds"...

El Mirador's singing waitress Scotty... made it home this summer to Delketh, Midlothian... where she's enjoying a reunion with her family... She postcards that she's enjoying it... but looking forward to her return here this fall...

Helen and Earl Henderson wrote from Baden-Baden... early this summer... and said my ears should be burning because they had met so many Palm Springsers abroad... They were with General Vic and Marguerite Bertrands in Cannes... saw the Fred Klemps of Thunderbird... and crossed paths with Tom and Theodore Fleming (they wrote from Rome)...

Helen said it had been very warm all over Europe but that Palm Springsers hardly noticed it... A highlight of their summer... they were in Brussels for the Royal wedding...

Frankie Spitz wrote from Cannes... that there were several Villagers there... the film colony was well represented (Eddie and Liz were there at the time)... and the U.S. fleet was anchored right in front of the Carlton in Mediterranean waters... Frankie penned... "We look at the mountains and long for Palm Springs"...

Well... all you homesick ones can start coming home... That's the only known cure...

Carol Clapp Entering Hawaii U

Carol Clapp, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph G. Clapp, 1183 Linda Vista Road, has been accepted as a junior student at the University of Hawaii for the fall term. Carol is a Palm Springs High School graduate, class of 1957, and the recipient of a scholarship awarded by the American Association of University Women. Carol was a June graduate of Stephens College, Columbia, Missouri.

Mrs. Clapp, who has been on the faculty of the Idyllwild Arts Foundation this summer, flew to Honolulu on Tuesday to spend a week with her daughter, who has been busy all summer working at the Palama Settlement House in that city. Mrs. Clapp will return to the Village just in time to resume her teaching position at the Frances Stevens School.

Herrera Daughter Married to Lawrence Bertolloni

Married in a nuptial mass dedicated to the bride's grandfather Pete Herrera Sr., Adeline Herrera, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Herrera, of 608 Highland Drive, and Lawrence J. Bertolloni, were married Saturday in mid-afternoon at Our Lady of Solitude Catholic Church. Monsignor Save performed the double ring ceremony in the presence of 150 guests.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was radiant in a floor length gown fashioned of white chantilly lace and tulle over taffeta. The tight fitting bodice had a high scalloped neckline embroidered with seeded pearls and long, pointed sleeves. The fingertip veil was held in place by a hat of scalloped sequins and seed pearls, and she carried a cascade bouquet of white gladioli and carnations.

Maid of honor Joan Jensen wore a ballerina length gown of aqua chiffon with matching headdress and shoes. She carried a bouquet of white carnations circled with aqua net.

Bridesmaids were Sara Herrera and Helen Romero, sister and cousin of the bride. Each wore an aqua gown of pure silk organza over taffeta, with matching ensemble.

Serving as best man was Eugene Prieto, while ushers were Nathan Wilson and Jim Jiminez. Cousins of the bride served as flower girl and ring bearer, Slepji Jurado of Palm Springs and Joe Jiminez Jr. of Redlands.

The wedding reception was held at the Palm Springs Playhouse where Mrs. Manuel Cepi and Mrs. Barbara Gonzales assisted with serving refreshments.

The newlyweds are at home at 518 El Cielo Drive. The bridegroom is associated with Robert M. Williams, tile contractor.

Mr. and Mrs. Peck Off on Honeymoon

Family members witnessed the wedding ceremony of Mrs. Reid Trousdale of Westwood, Balboa and Palm Springs, and Dean Peck who were married Thursday afternoon by Superior Court Judge Edward R. Brand in his chambers in Santa Monica.

Immediately afterward the couple left for New York. They were to sail from there Saturday for Bermuda.

Mr. and Mrs. Peck will live in Westwood after their return.

CLARA LOU MUST BE WINNING LOTSA MONEY IN HER DANCIN' SCHOOL!

'Spoilers' Wallop Sox, L.A., Braves

Dodgers, Milwaukee Dropped Behind Idle Giants in N.L. Race

United Press International

Take it from the White Sox, Dodgers and Braves—a "spoiler" is a pennant contender's worst enemy in September.

The true "spoiler" almost always is a fellow who'll have to pay his way into the World Series in October but is happy to spoil the party for the contenders.

JIM BUNNING of the Tigers, Larry Jackson of the Cardinals and Don Cardwell of the Phillies all pretty much fit that description today—much to the chagrin of the contending White Sox, Dodgers and Braves.

Bunning, rocking along on a so-so season, extended his career mastery over the White Sox to 10-2 Tuesday night when his three-hitter gave the Tigers a 4-0 win over the American League leaders.

JACKSON, A "500" pitcher since he joined the Cardinals in 1955 and struggling to best that mark all this season, raised his career mark against the Dodgers to 12-5 with a two-hitter that gave St. Louis a 3-0 win. The defeat dropped the Dodgers.

CARDWELL, A 23-YEAR old righthander had won one game up to July 1 but has been knocking off contenders with happy abandon ever since. He picked on the Braves Tuesday night pitching a six-hitter and hitting a two run ninth-inning homer for the Phillies' 5-3 victory. Harmon Killebrew hit his 39th homer as the Washington Senators downed the Boston Red Sox 7-4, and Whitey Ford and Ryno Duren combined in a seven-hitter as the New York Yankees whipped the Baltimore Orioles, 5-0, in other games.

U.S. Picks Up 33 Titles in Pan-Am Play

American Athletes Having Field Day Against Hemisphere

CHICAGO — UPI — The United States still was racking them up in the Pan American Games today.

Thirty-nine gold medals have been decided, and U. S. athletes have picked up 33 of them. The runner-up, Cuba, has won two. Another was won for the West Indies Federation by a U. S. college athlete.

TUESDAY SEVEN of the nine medals went to U. S. competitors, six of them winning with a record performance.

Berta Diaz of Cuba upset record-setter Barbara Mueller, Chicago, in the 80 meter women's hurdles, and George Kerr, a University of Illinois runner, broke the tape in the 400 meter run ahead of two West Indies teammates, Basil Ince, of Tufts College, and Mal Spence, of Arizona State in the two championships the U. S. lost.

U. S. PERFORMERS swept all three medals in the men's shot put and women's broad jump. Parry O'Brien, Los Angeles, cracked the Pan American record in the shot put and fell only 8 1/2 inches short of his world record to lead Dallas Long, Phoenix, Ariz., and David Davis, Canoga Park, Calif.

Anne Smith, Atlanta, Ga., topped teammates Margaret Matthews, Memphis, Tenn., and Willie White, Greenwood, Miss., in the broad jump. All six U. S. athletes broke the previous Pan American record.

Ring Warns Ray To Defend Title

NEW YORK — UPI — Ring magazine today warned Sugar Ray Robinson to defend his world middleweight crown against Gene Fullmer, brand new National Boxing Association champion and "fighter of the month," or risk being regarded a retired champion.

'SEVERE EXHAUSTION' HOSPITALIZES HALL OF FAME'S FOXX

GALESBURG, Ill. UPI — Hall of Famer Jimmy Foxx was re-entering in a hospital here today from a case of what doctors termed "severe exhaustion."

Foxx, 51, a former home run slugger who won the American League's most valuable player award three times, collapsed two days ago in a doctor's office where he had taken his wife, Dorothy, for treatment of a sprained ankle.

The physician attending the baseball great, Dr. Howard Graham, said, however, that there is "a possibility" Foxx suffered a heart attack in his office.

Why Olympia is brewed only at Tumwater

Since 1896, light Olympia Beer has been brewed at the little town of Tumwater, near Olympia, in Washington State. For it is here that Olympia's famed brewing water was discovered flowing cold and pure from deep artesian wells. At various times in the past, Olympia's founding family established other breweries along the Pacific Coast. Identical equipment and methods were employed. The same premium quality hops and grains were used.

The best water supply available in each region was utilized. Yet, at none of these other locations was it possible to brew a beer of the character and quality which the name Olympia had come to represent. Without the one priceless ingredient—the naturally perfect brewing water—Olympia's refreshing flavor could not be duplicated elsewhere. That is why Olympia Beer is brewed only at Tumwater—and why Olympia's good taste remains refreshingly different yet always just the same.

the one priceless ingredient... "It's the Water"

Visitors are always welcome to "One of America's Exceptional Breweries," Olympia Brewing Company, Olympia, Washington, U. S. A., every day between the hours of 8:00 and 4:30. *Only *9-14

CLIMB ABOARD, KIDS, and take a close-up look of Uncle Sam's famed supersonic F-86 Sabre Jet. The fighter craft will be on display Sunday and Monday at the third annual Banning Labor Day carnival sponsored by the Precious Blood Catholic School parish.

The two-day carnival program features a barbecue dinner, continuous entertainment and games and rides for youngsters. Five major prizes—including an expense-paid trip to Hawaii—will be awarded during the holiday carnival.

Desert's Miners May Gain Aid, Declares Saund

Special to The Desert Sun
WASHINGTON, D. C. — Congressman D. S. Saund today offered new hope to desert area mining men hard-hit by the current "depressed condition" of the nation's mining industry.

Congressman Saund said the House of Representatives has approved a resolution asking President Eisenhower to study the present mining recession and report back to Congress.

The Congressional action is the result of an intensive study of the House Interior and Insular Affairs Committee, of which Saund is a member.

Congressman Saund reported that the committee quizzed mining industry leaders, including Gene DeZan, of Blythe, who represented the desert area mining industry, and inspected the nation's western metal mining centers to determine the extent of the industry's recession.

PD Craftsman Wins Hemet Prize

PALM DESERT — Craftsman George Oswald returned from the Hemet Farmer's Fair this week with three first, four second and five third place ribbons for his leathercraft, jewelry and train model exhibits.

Oswald started picking up his ribbons the first day of the fair, which, coincidentally, was his wife's birthday.

The Oswalds marked the anniversary by attending the fair with their children, Mona Lee and Cindy, and Mrs. Oswald's grandmother, Mrs. Grace Harrington, who lives at the Oswalds' Palm Desert home.

Taxes Raised On Formosa

TAIPEI — (UPI) — President Chiang Kai-Shek today ordered a temporary increase of as much as 40 per cent in taxes and the price of state-supplied goods and services to help Nationalist China repair the damage caused Aug. 7 by the worst storm in Formosa's history.

Study Launched

Monorail System Sought for L.A.

LOS ANGELES — (UPI) — Metropolitan Transit Authority (MTA) officials today studied plans for an $80-million-dollar privately-financed monorail rapid transit system to serve the greater Los Angeles area.

The proposal was submitted to MTA Executive Director Charles (Max) Gilliss by Thoms J. Lupo, spokesman for the Werner - Green organization and its affiliates.

THE ORGANIZATION owns, operates or has perfected and tested every existing modern monorail in the world," Lupo said. These include monorails at Dallas, Houston and Disneyland.

The Werner - Green interests would underwrite the estimated $80-million-dollar cost of the system, Lupo said. In return for franchise rights, the operators would pay a large percentage of revenue to the MTA.

THE PROPOSED 600 - 800 miles

Palm Desert

By GRETCHEN CHEESEMAN
By ELLEN SAUNDERS
Mrs. Edna Ing of B - Bar - H Ranch returned on Wednesday from an extended tour of Canada. Mrs. Ing, accompanied by her son and daughter-in-law, the Forest Ings of Downey, and granddaughters Sheila and Susan, flew to Calgary, where they met Mrs. Ing's friend, Mrs. Ella Currier who had planned in from Orlando, Fla., and were the houseguests of the Howard Mortons.

Mrs. Ing, her granddaughters, and Mrs. Currier flew on to Vancouver and Victoria, B. C., then spent several days with Mrs. Currier's son-in-law, Richard Sherwood, manager of the Marcus Whitman Hotel in Walla Walla, Wash.

After short stops in Portland, Seattle and San Francisco, Mrs. Ing and Mrs. Currier relaxed at the Downey Motor Lodge—a motel which Mrs. Ing recently sold after many years of ownership. Mrs. Currier will spend several weeks here before returning to Orlando.

Thirty-one Desert Hot Springs baseball fans rode a chartered bus to the Los Angeles Coliseum where they watched the Giants and the Dodgers slug out their third game. En route they picked up eight residents of Glenn Ranch, including U. S. Forest Ranger Bettison and his wife — all old time friends of Kathryn and Lloyd Brison who were in charge of the arrangements.

Mrs. J. Marie Ropp is houseguesting with her cousins, the Winfred Smiths of Glendale. On Sunday Mrs. Ropp and the Smiths attended an afternoon concert held in the Atwater Kent bowl at Idyllwild. One of the featured performers was the Smith's 17-year-old daughter, Nina, who is an accomplished cellist.

Attorney Arthur Murray, Jr., who is currently a guest at the El Encanto Health-A-Torium, his sister, Mrs. Agnes Barker of Los Angeles, and Mrs. Mary Turner, manager of the Mona Liza Motel, were seen dining at Howard Manor on Thursday night.

Joseph Kanya, principal of the Desert Hot Springs school, has just returned from a five-day administrators conference in Idyllwild. Mrs. Kanya accompanied her husband.

Capt. and Mrs. Erling Christensen are back in town after spending five weeks in San Pedro. The couple visited their sons, Chester and Russell and Mrs. Christensen's sister, Mrs. Olaf Enderson. Adding to their enjoyment was the fact that Mrs. Enderson's husband, Captain Olaf Enderson of the Military Transport Service was home on leave.

Mrs. Jennie Frank returned on Tuesday to her apartment at the Smile Inn Hotel after having spent the summer in New York City. Mrs. Frank's niece, Mrs. Mable Gordon, made the return trip with her.

The Bert Moores — he's a deputy sheriff — left Tuesday on a two weeks vacation which will include stop-overs in San Francisco, Reno and Lake Tahoe.

Tommy and Barbara Coultrap of Long Beach, returned home on Thursday after spending a few days with their grandfather, Lee Doran.

Mr. and Mrs. Stone Wright, Sr., are home again. Much of their month's vacation was spent with their son and daughter — in - law, Dr. and Mrs. Harold Wright of Waldron, Ark. They also managed to get in some good fishing and visit relatives in Hope, Ark., and in Missouri.

Mrs. Billie Thompson, her daughter and son-in-law, the Don Littles, and their daughter, Karl Lee, headed for a cool weekend at Big Bear on Friday.

A letter from the Aaron Eatons tells of the fine weather they encountered on their trip to Boise, Idaho, where they visited Mr. Eaton's daughter and grandson. The Eatons, who are now in Victoria, B.C., expect to be home early in September.

Organist Mae Branch and husband Art have returned from a two months vacation in Alabama, and Mae will resume her playing engagement at Sheppard's restaurant shortly. This week Mae has as her houseguests her parents, Pop and Mom O'Hagan. The O'Hagans are leaving soon for Japan to fill a three months engagement at the Latin Quarter, one of Tokyo's finest night clubs. This is the O'Hagan's fourth trip to Japan and their popularity is such that they are booked for the club's opening night.

Sherry Scarberry left on Sunday for a 10-day visit in Hayward with her mother, Mrs. Rose Scarberry, and her aunt and uncle, the Val Gardeshires.

The Jack Slaters of Glendale are building a triplex in the Highlands area, and plan to establish permanent residence here. Their good friends Nat and Rose Bertram are reported to have sold them on desert living.

Mrs. Mary Ann Alireza and her five children were in town for a few days to say goodbye to their aunt, Mrs. J. Marie Ropp before sailing for their home in Geneva, Switzerland, on Sept. 3.

The Hans Johnsons have put their house up for sale and will be living permanently in the new home they recently purchased in Banning.

Weekending at the Broadview Motel were Mr. and Mrs. Pedro Mares and their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Villegas. On Saturday night, the four-some who own the Little Pedros restaurant in Los Angeles, hosted a steak barbecue for guests at the Broadview. Present also were Broadview owners, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bonalick, and managers, Mr. and Mrs. William DeLong.

John Scarberry was released from the Veterans Administration Hospital in Long Beach on Wednesday. Oral surgery was performed during his ten-day stay there.

S.F. Trio Face Cancer Quack Charge in Trial

Selection of Jury Enters Third Day In Municipal Court

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Jury selection for the trial of three persons accused of selling "quack" cancer cure machines entered its third day today in Municipal Court.

Mrs. Golda Franzen, 46, San Francisco, and two Southern California men, Webster Ballington, 40, Santa Ana, and Emerson Hartman, 69, a San Bernardino chiropractor, are on trial before Judge Charles S. Peary.

The trio allegedly sold $200,000 worth of vibrator cancer cure machines which actually were tape recorders without loud speakers. Advertisement of the machines as cancer curing devices violated the state health and safety code and was a misdemeanor under state law, the state charges.

Mrs. Franzen is a widely known anti-fluoridationist.

The highest transcontinental railroad track in North America is at Marshall Pass, Colo., where the Rio Grande line crosses the Continental Divide at 10,946 feet.

'Blue Eyes' Nets Jail

'Music Lover' Fought for Tune

Music lover Charlie Pike may be singing a different tune today, but he still loves his "Blue Eyes." Pike, 25, is lodged in city jail today on an assault with a deadly weapon charge — just because he wanted to hear his favorite song.

RALPH EISNAUGLE, a drummer with a Palm Springs night club band, tells the story this way:

"We were playing our last piece for the evening when this guy (Pike) gets up, comes to the bandstand, and hollers 'you guys are going to play Blue Eyes.'

"We told him we didn't know it, so he pulled a knife (a six-inch, razor-sharp putty knife), says 'you're going to learn it right now and jumps on the bandstand.'

POLICE SAID PIKE cut Eisnaugle two or three times on the throat before the drummer jumped his assailant, shoved him through the drums and took the knife away.

"Then he (Pike) ran to the door and hollered 'I'm gonna come back and get you guys when I'm sober,'" Eisnaugle said.

But Police Officer Herb Shalies caught up with Pike before he could carry out his alleged threat. "It was real crazy," Eisnaugle said. "I never saw the guy before in my life."

Salk Vaccine Bandits Sought

MONTREAL — (UPI) — Medical authorities and police officials theorized today four masked bandits stole 75,000 Salk polio vaccine shots for bootlegging on a black market.

Helen Peck Wise Gains Six Prizes At Hemet Fair

Special to The Desert Sun
IDYLLWILD — Octogenarian Helen Peck Wise has garnered a new batch of blue ribbons for her oil and watercolor canvasses and her monotype and crayon art work.

Mrs. Wise, 82-year-old former desert resident now active in her Tanglewood Studio at Thomas Mountain, captured six prizes at the Hemet Farmer's Fair.

She won a first prize for each of her entries in oils, watercolors, monotypes and crayons and snared two extra "special awards" for two of her entries.

A prominent Western artist, Mrs. Wise also dabbles in music. Her song "Christmas on the Desert" was featured by Jack Kearns' Orchestra at the Shadow Mountain Club's last Yuletide party, which Mrs. Wise attended while spending the winter at the Palm Desert guest of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Corner.
